

LFS class ranking guide

In January, Law Firm Staff released The 2001 LFS Attorney Search Guide To Class Ranking Distinctions And Law Review Admission At America's Top 25 Law Schools (the LFS Guide) to many of the nation's premier law firms. Because there are as many different grade scales, honors and law review requirements as there are law schools, the LFS Guide was written to demystify what it means to be at the top of the class at the best law schools around the country.

To date, the reaction we have received with respect to the LFS Guide is outstanding. Many of the best and busiest hiring professionals tell us that the LFS Guide is a reference book they use on an almost daily basis. Because it is our goal to provide you not only with stellar candidates, but to provide you the most complete, accurate, and comprehensive information possible on each and every candidate you review, we are pleased that the LFS Guide is a useful resource.

We are therefore thrilled to announce that the LFS Guide is now available online. To see it, you can access it through the link below.

If you would like a hard copy of the LFS Guide, please don't hesitate to contact any one of our attorney Directors. We would welcome any opportunity to talk to you further about your law firm's hiring needs, and how we can contribute to your firm's long-term success.
